Across The Land And The Water Selected Poems 1964 2001 Modern Library Paperbacks:

W. G. Sebald in Context Uwe Schütte, 2023-09-07 The German academic and writer W G Sebald made an astounding ascent into the canon of world literature In this volume leading experts from both the English and the German speaking worlds explore his celebrated prose works published in the short span from 1996 to his premature death in 2001 Special attention is paid to Sebald s unpublished texts and books awaiting translation into English The volume illustrated with many unpublished archive images scrutinizes the dual nature of Sebald s life and work located between Germany and England academic and literary writing vilification and idolization Through nearly forty essays on a broad range of topics W G Sebald in Context achieves a revision of our understanding of Sebald defying many clichés about him Particular attention is paid to the manifold ways in which Sebald s writings exerted a legacy far beyond literature especially in the areas of art cinema and popular music

Traces of Trauma in W. G. Sebald and Christoph Ransmayr Dora Osborne, 2017-12-02 Both W G Sebald 1944 2001 and the Austrian author Christoph Ransmayr 1954 were born too late to know directly the violence of the Second World War and the Holocaust but these traumatic events are a persistent presence in their work In a series of close readings of key prose texts Dora Osborne examines the different ways in which the traces of a traumatic past mark their narratives By focusing on the authors use of visual and topographical tropes she shows how blind spots and inhospitable places configure signs of past violence but ultimately resist our understanding Whilst links between the two authors are well documented this book offers the first full length study of Sebald and Ransmayr and their complicated relation to the traumatic traces of National Socialism Dora Osborne is Lecturer in German at the University of Nottingham

The nouveau roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism Adam Guy, 2019-12-10 The nouveau roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism recovers a neglected literary history In the late 1950s news began to arrive in Britain of a group of French writers who were remaking the form of the novel In the work of Michel Butor Marguerite Duras Robert Pinget Alain Robbe Grillet Nathalie Sarraute and Claude Simon the hallmarks of novelistic writing discernible characters psychological depth linear chronology were discarded in favour of other aesthetic horizons Transposed to Britain s highly polarized literary culture the nouveau roman became a focal point for debates about the novel For some the nouveau roman represented an aberration and a pernicious turn against the humanistic values that the novel embodied For others it provided a route out of the stultifying conventionality and conformism that had taken root in British letters On both sides one question persisted given the innovations of interwar modernism to what extent was the nouveau roman actually new This book begins by drawing on publishers archives and hitherto undocumented sources from a wide range of periodicals to show how the nouveau roman was mediated to the British public Of central importance here is the publisher Calder Boyars and its belief that the nouveau roman could be enjoyed by a mass public The book then moves onto literary responses in Britain to the nouveau roman focusing on questions of translation realism the end of empire and the writing of the project From the translations of Maria

Jolas through to the hostile responses of the circle around C P Snow and onto the literary debts expressed in novels by Brian W Aldiss Christine Brooke Rose Eva Figes B S Johnson Alan Sheridan Muriel Spark and Denis Williams the nouveau roman is shown to be a central concern in the postwar British literary field International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters
