A Theological Understanding of Power for Poverty Alleviation in the Philippines Yohan Hong, 2022-02-28 This book calls attention to the sense of powerlessness of everyday people in the Philippines and to the missional agency of US based Filipino Protestants Through a variety of sociological theological missiological perspectives this book guides you to a journey of discovering what kind of power is in play how the fallen powers can be named and made visible and then ultimately the ways through which power should be restored In this process the voices perceptions stories and insights of US based Filipino Protestants are referred to Filipino American Protestants are no longer forgotten Asians in the US Instead they actively perceive negotiate and exercise power in everyday life and strive to wield their missional agency in response to God s calling for the transformation of their homeland Philippines which has been seldom investigated in the academia of Diaspora Missiology and Intercultural Studies

Who Am I And Who Says I Am Who I Am Pastor Albert J. Harris Jr., 2021-03-16 Once again God continues to remind me that my life is a lifetime of untold stories that I must share with the world It is God who inspires the stories for me to tell to the world As God was preparing my mind to write this story I personally had experience many of the things that I talk about in this book There is one thing that I have accepted as I wrote this book and that is For in God we live and move and have our being Acts 17 28 I m just saying that God is the source of our very existence This is why I practice believing that I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me Phil 4 13 I want you to know that what God does for one person he can do the same for you That is the purpose of this book to give hope to those who are hopeless and helpless I believe that we need to get to know ourselves because we don t know ourselves as well as we think we do But I know someone who knows all of us better than we know ourselves Jer 1 5 Let me encourage and inspire someone that the one who knows you better that you know yourselves is Jesus He also has your best interest at heart I recommend that we consider submitting and surrendering to him because he is the life that we ve all been searching for John 1 1 14 So it is my brothers and my sisters when you come to know who Jesus is you will also come to know who you are When God made you he made the best you there is So it is up to you not to lose hope nor your self esteem but you ought to continue your pursuit of being the best that you can be with God s help Jesus gives this hope to all those who will believe and trust him In John 10 10b Jesus says I come that you have life and have life more abundantly My brothers and my sisters it is my prayer that you be the best that you can be with the resources that God provides for all of us Every day that you wake up it is another for improvement in your life Please don t let life s opportunities pass you by but start taking advantage of every opportunity that comes your way because life is too short to pass it up Stop underestimating your worth God said that everything that he made was good and very good that includes you and me amen Gen 1 31 With much love I send these pages of my life out into the world with the hope that someone s life will be the better Also I want to remind someone that their life also is a book whether it s open are closed it can be shared with the world It s a wonderful thing to know that we reap what we sow In other words what goes around comes around Amen When we invest in others we also invest in ourselves Gal 6 7 8 mankind free Being an Intergenerational Church Suzi Farrant, Darren Philip, 2023-08-31 There is a growing realisation across mainstream churches that age segregated models of connecting with children young people and families are not working Drawing on their extensive experience Suzi Farrant and Darren Philip set out a vision for bringing the generations back together to become the intergenerational church we are designed to be In conversation with the writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer they develop a theological rationale for intentional intergenerational relationships of mutuality lived out within the core activities of the church Through an exploration of the Christian practices of humility hospitality participation discipleship joy worship discernment and testimony they call the church to re discover its DNA as an all age community of transformation

Leadership in a Shrinking Church William H. Harrison, 2025-07-01 Theological and practical reflections on demographic change in the church Numerous churches are contending with the challenges posed by declining membership and attendance While these trends have most recently been ascribed to the COVID 19 pandemic the trajectory predates the pandemic and is likely to continue beyond it William Harrison takes the perspective that demographic decline is merely a reality rather than a failure to be resolved with new strategies and examines the theological and ecclesiological questions posed by a shrinking church In theological and practical reflections Harrison examines the twin crises of identity and leadership facing the church arguing that in response to demographic change churches must renew their outward focus on evangelism and service These characteristics of a diaconal church are rooted in sacramental life and self understanding in a sacramental world At the same time leaders must find ways to support these activities while managing decline Leadership in a Shrinking Church connects theological reflection to mission by identifying some of the challenges presented by decline and connecting them to productive responses

God's Mandate for Transforming Your Nation Dexter Low, 2016 What is the church's mission in the 21st century Malaysian apostle and missiologist Dexter Low says nation transformation must become our new agenda for fulfilling the Great Commission in our time The current model which calls for uniting the church's leaders worldwide to win 1 billion souls and plant 5 million churches by 2021 isn't working Ultimately it cannot because its emphasis on church planting and evangelism excludes social transformation But when the key pillars of social influence are also realigned according to kingdom principles then your nation any nation will be transformed God's Mandate for Transforming Your Nation provides practical instructions on advancing God's kingdom globally True examples of ways that lead to measurable results are included Low will both challenge and inspire you as a Christian leader to take a significant step forward in fulfilling the church's mission in the 21st century faith are the subjects of Rebecca Hartt's enthusiastically received Acts of Valor romantic suspense series David Yonggi Cho Wonsuk Ma, 2017-11-29 This book is a serious attempt by Asian scholars to reflect on various aspects of the Asian Pentecostal movement. It joins a small but growing list of works on this critical subject. Second, it presents an Asian perspective on one of the most important figures in Asian Pentecostalism in this generation, Dr. David Yonggi Cho, who clearly stands out as one of the most preeminent Pentecostals anywhere in the world. The Divine Heartset Crispin Fletcher-Louis, 2023-11-21 The fruit of a decade's research, this volume offers a new interpretation of the dense Christological narrative in Philippians 2:6-11, taking inspiration from recent advances in our understanding of the letter's Greek and Roman setting and from insights made possible by recently created linguistic databases such as TLG and PHI. The passage's praise of Christ engages the language of Hellenistic ruler cults, Platonic metaphysics, and moral philosophy; popular Homeric beliefs about the gods and Greek love/eros to articulate a scripturally grounded theology in which God is revealed to be one in two persons: God the Father and LORD Jesus Christ. The volume also explores hitherto unseen ways in which the central Christ Hymn is tightly connected to the rest of Paul's argument. The hymn presents Christ as an epitome of the ideals of Greek and Roman virtue to support Paul's summoning his readers to a life of praiseworthy and exemplary civic conduct in 1:27. New or recently proposed translations are advanced for numerous words and phrases in e.g. 1:8, 11:27, 2:3, 4:6, 11:3, 2:4, and a new non-Stendahl approach to Paul's boasting in 3:4, 6 that is Christological rather than biographical is put forward. Boldly I Come Kofi Acheampong, 2020-06-16 Let us therefore come BOLDLY unto the throne of grace. Hebrews 4:16 Prayer connects us with supernatural God-given power for unshakeable faith and victory over defeat in everyday life. It is the bridge to a life of perpetual victory, a spiritual weapon capable of overcoming evil and changing our world. Using twelve Biblical benefits of prayer, Evangelist Kofi Acheampong introduces the authority granted to us through prayer. Specific prayer points show how to pray for the real-world concerns of everyday life. Through teaching and example, prepare to stir up and unleash power and boldness in prayer as you've never witnessed before. It's time to come BOLDLY unto the throne of grace. Remember the King Jacob English, 2023-01-24 You may not understand your calling in the Lord fully, but I assure you you are called to do great things. Jacob English, Pastor Twelve-year-old Phillip tends the family sheep and cows as he wrestles with the notion of his being known before he was formed. Through an encounter with the King of the Holy Word, Phillip learns of a purpose and destiny far greater than he could ever imagine. But there is war in the land. The Great Dragon seeks to destroy Philip and those he loves. Now Philip must rise to his calling, overcome his adversaries, and fight for his King. Through this allegorical tale, pastor and teacher Jacob English reminds readers that God is looking for the men and women whom he knew and ordained to go into the earth and do his will. Will He recognize you as the one He created you to be? Are you doing what God has called you to do? That is the only thing that matters in life. The ones who have done His will are the ones who will hear well done. Know where you are from, what you are meant to do, and how to address the Lord's call upon your life. You are called to do

Whitlark, 2008 The primary focus of this book is to demonstrate how Hebrews represents in view of its historical and religious context human fidelity to God Thus the basic thesis is twofold First with regard to the divine human relationship in the ancient Mediterranean world the belief in the reciprocity rationale was one primary dynamic for establishing fidelity to a relationship and has been applied by some scholars such as David deSilva to Hebrews as the way to understand its strategy for creating perseverance A major problem with the application of this dynamic is that a common optimistic anthropological assumption is associated with the various reciprocity systems in the ancient world both Jewish and pagan This assumption is required if reciprocity is to be effective for establishing ongoing fidelity Second there was however a middle Judaic stream that can be traced from the period of the exile which held to a pessimistic anthropology This anthropological assumption crippled the perceived success of reciprocity to secure fidelity Thus the solution to God's people's inability to remain faithful was an act of God that transformed the human condition and enabled faithfulness to the relationship The argument of this book is that Hebrews with its emphasis upon the inauguration of the new covenant by Jesus high priestly ministry belongs to this latter stream of thought in understanding how fidelity is secured between God and his people Hebrews thus implicitly rejects the rationale of reciprocity for fidelity The implications of this offers a fresh perspective on the soteriology of Hebrews
