Religion and Non-Religion among Australian Aboriginal Peoples James L. Cox,Adam Possamai,2016-12-01 Offering a significant contribution to the emerging field of Non Religion Studies Religion and Non Religion among Australian Aboriginal Peoples draws on Australian 2011 Census statistics to ask whether the Indigenous Australian population like the wider Australian society is becoming increasingly secularised or whether there are other explanations for the surprisingly high percentage of

Aboriginal people in Australia who state that they have no religion Contributors from a range of disciplines consider three central questions How do Aboriginal Australians understand or interpret what Westerners have called religion Do Aboriginal Australians distinguish being religious from being non religious How have modernity and Christianity affected Indigenous understandings of religion These questions refocus Western dominated concerns with the decline or revival of religion by incorporating how Indigenous Australians have responded to modernity how modernity has affected Indigenous peoples religious behaviours and perceptions and how variations of response can be found in rural and urban contexts
