Efficient Learning for the Poor Helen Abadzi, 2006 Large scale efforts have been made since the 1990s to ensure that all children of the world go to school But mere enrollment is not sufficient students must become fluent in reading and calculation by the end of grade 2 Fluency is needed to process large amounts of text quickly and use the information for decisions that may ultimately reduce poverty State of the art brain imaging and cognitive psychology research can help formulate effective policies for improving the basic skills of low income students This book integrates research into applications that extend from preschool brain development to the memory of adult educators In layman s terms it provides explanations and answers to questions such as Why do children have to read fast before they can understand what they read How do health nutrition and stimulation influence brain development Why should students learn basic skills in their maternal language Is there such a thing as an untrained teacher What signs in a classroom show whether students are getting a quality education How must information be presented in class so that students can retain it and use it What training techniques are most likely to help staff put their learning into use This book would be useful to policymakers donor agency staff teacher trainers supervisors and inspectors as well as university professors and students

A World View: Teacher planning guide ,1988 Sylvester of Antioch Mihai Țipău,2024-12-30 In 1724 Sylvester a native of the island of Cyprus was elected Patriarch of the Greek Orthodox Church of Antioch and All the East For more than four decades he endeavored to preserve the legacy of one of the earliest Christian Churches in the Levant He faced major challenges because of the ever changing balance of power between the Latin Church and its missionaries the Patriarchate of Constantinople the French and English interests in the Levant and the central and local Ottoman authorities In his efforts to provide church books for the Arab Orthodox Christians Sylvester was helped by rulers of the Romanian Principalities Moldavia and Wallachia He printed a number of books in Jassy and Bucharest and opened an Arabic press in Beirut Alongside his patriarchal duties Sylvester was also an accomplished icon painter His works in the Post Byzantine Greek style of the 18th century are preserved in Syrian and Lebanese churches as well as elsewhere Their study reveals just another aspect of his complex activity The book presents for the first time in English the biography and achievements of Sylvester of Antioch based on a wide range of contemporary Greek Arabic and Romanian historical sources

Codex Sierra Kevin Terraciano,2021-03-25 One of the earliest texts written in a Native American language the Codex Sierra is a sixteenth century book of accounts from Santa Catalina Texupan a community in the Mixteca region of the modern state of Oaxaca Kevin Terraciano s transcription and translation the first in more than a half century combine with his deeply informed analysis to make this the most accurate complete and comprehensive English language edition of this rare manuscript The sixty two page manuscript organized in parallel columns of Nahuatl alphabetic writing and hand painted images documents the expenditures and income of Texupan from 1550 to 1564 With the alphabetic column as a Rosetta stone for deciphering the phonetic glyphs a picture emerges of indigenous pueblos taking part in the burgeoning Mexican silk industry only to be buffeted by the opening of trade with China and the devastations of the great epidemics of the late 1500s Terraciano uses a wide range of archival sources from the period to demonstrate how the community innovated and adapted to the challenges of the time and how they were ultimately undermined by the actions and policies of colonial officials The first known record of an indigenous population s integration into the transatlantic economy and of the impact of the transpacific trade on a lucrative industry in the region the Codex Sierra provides a unique window on the world of the Mixteca less than a generation after the conquest a view rendered all the more precise clear and coherent by this new translation and commentary Approaches to Teaching the Thousand and One Nights Paulo Lemos Horta,2023-10-10 The Thousand and One Nights composed in Arabic from the eighth to the fourteenth centuries is one of the world s most widely circulated and influential collections of stories To help instructors introduce the tales to students this volume provides historical context and discusses the many transformations of the stories in a variety of cultures Among the topics covered are the numerous translations and their impact on the tales reception various genres represented by the tales gender race and slavery and adaptations of the stories in films graphic novels and other media across the world and under conditions of both imperialism and postcolonialism The essays serve instructors in subjects such as medieval literature world literature and Middle and Near Eastern studies and make a case for teaching the Thousand and One Nights in courses on identity and race Blanks, Print, Space, and Void in English

Renaissance Literature Jonathan Sawday,2023-06-20 Blanks Print Space and Void in English Renaissance Literature is an inquiry into the empty spaces encountered not just on the pages of printed books in c 1500 1700 but in Renaissance culture more generally The book argues that print culture in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries helped to foster the modern idea of the gap where words texts images and ideas are constructed as missing lost withheld fragmented or perhaps never devised in the first place It re imagines how early modern people reacted not just to printed books and documents of many different kinds but also how the very idea of emptiness or absence began to be fashioned in a way which still surrounds us Jonathan Sawday leads the reader through the entire landscape of early modern print culture discussing topics such as space and silence the exploration of the vacuum the ways in which race and racial identity in early modern England were constructed by the language and technology of print blackness and whiteness together with lightness darkness and sightlessness cartography and emptiness the effect of typography on reading practices the social spaces of the page gendered surfaces hierarchies of information books of memory pages constructed as waste or vacant the genesis of blank forms and early modern bureaucracy the political and devotional spaces of printed books the impact of censorship and the problem posed by texts which lack endings or conclusions The book itself ends by dwelling on blank or empty pages as a sign of human mortality Sawday pays close attention to the writings of many of the familiar figures in English Renaissance literary culture Sidney Shakespeare Donne Jonson and Milton for example as well as introducing readers to a host of lesser known figures The book also discusses the work of numerous women writers from the period including Aphra Behn Ann Bradstreet Margaret Cavendish Lady Jane Gray Lucy Hutchinson melia Lanyer Isabella Whitney and Lady Mary Wroth
