Sutrisno Murtiyoso,Alvin Hadiwono,Titin Fatimah,Nafiah Solikhah,Samsu Hendra Siwi,2025-06-26 This is an open access book Religion produced noteworthy architectures from the beginning of humanity Religion gives meaning and direction to human life and in the process unites and empowers human beings to direct their aspirations and resources to build spectacular works of houses of worship and gathering Religious architecture fills a significant part of history of architecture Since ages for the religions of mankind human beings have evolved a plethora of forms in simple stone buildings to the ones in sophisticated modern materials and technologies From an architectural point of view every building built for religion is sacred meaning it is dedicated to the powers beyond However the manifestations are so much varied as they depend on the regulations sanctioned by different religious teachings combined with the society s culture and tradition and the builder s intentions and aspirations Added to that are the local environmental factors the availability of building materials existing building technology and the time span of its development From what we know today the oldest religious architecture could be found in G bekli Tepe built around 10 000 years ago when humanity still lived as hunter gatherers Architecture developed further into megalithic period became increasingly monumental in the medieval age with colossal royal worship complexes Up to modern times we keep on building religious architectures with increasing elaboration The International Conference on Religious Architecture is organized with a hope to broaden our understanding and perspective in this often neglected field

The study in religious architecture is more acutely felt in the regions outside of Europe and America while the demand is clearly pressing today The Conference should serve as a forum for scholars in the field hopefully being the first one in a series

Architecture and Interior Design : An Integrated History to the Present Buie Harwood (Bridget May & Curt Sherman),2012

Design & Intuition Cecilia Lewis Kausel,2012

Scholarship has sought to explain design primarily as developments and trends by understanding the influential ideas of a period These processes are resourceful to the analysis however they don't explain why people become attached to design and cultivate it in time For this purpose we must also gain understanding of collective cognitive processes and the meaning of design to people The study traces the development of respective design observed first in ancient structures and then in interiors and artefacts that are associated to architecture by design Design form migrates usually from technology to material culture i.e. from buildings to interiors and crafts though this direction is not fixed in creativity Sometimes this pattern is not followed and arches pilasters tower crenellations and pediments appear in historic costume Technology holds implications for visual culture thus this study also looks at the inspiration in mechanical instruments observed in XXI century design As the book unfolds a cultural phenomenon emerges Architectural evocations in other crafts reflect that the public has its own dialogue with design The attachments and responses of the public to design are many times a phenomenon worthy of being analyzed The book gives out interesting findings about the mind and how it transforms design It also exemplifies a new methodology for the observation of collective responses to design
