Architecture In The Balkans From Diocletian To Suleyman The Magnificent C 300 155:

Byzantine Greece: Microcosm of Empire? Archibald Dunn, 2023-08-28 This volume offers a structured presentation of the progress of research into the internal history of a part of the Byzantine world Greece in the centuries before the multiple changes induced or accelerated by the Fourth Crusade Greece is a large area several Early and Middle Byzantine provinces with records archival literary archaeological architectural and art historical most of which are unequalled in terms of their density and range This creates opportunities for useful synthesis and for dialogue with those now engaged in the rewriting or writing of the inner history of Byzantium from Italy to the Caucasus who have been stimulated by or involved in the editing of archives and inscriptions including sigillographic and in the publication of monuments excavations and surveys for all of which the Greek space the elladik kh ra is a particular and fertile focus of activity as the conference showed Much of the material presented here can usually only be found in specialised publication and indeed much in Greek alone But properly contextualised this material about the Greek space deserves to be brought into the dialogues or debates at the heart of Byzantine Studies for instance about the Late Antique boom urban life the Dark Age economic change the nature of the Byzantine revival and of social socio economic and ethnic groups The studies here synthesise such research enabling the Greek space as a case study in the evolution of a significant region to the west of Constantinople to take its place more fully as a point of reference in such dialogues or debates Equally it provides frameworks for archaeologists dealing with Greece from Late Antiquity onwards and there are now many with which to engage and it makes available a rich source of comparative material for those studying the other regions of the Byzantine world whether historically or archaeologically in Southeastern Europe Italy or Turkey Architecture in the Balkans from Diocletian to Süleyman the Magnificent Slobodan Ćurčić, 2010 Illustrated with over nine hundred photographs and drawings most of them specially commissioned the book presents a generally unknown body of material in a distinctive and unprecedented manner Book Jacket Studies on the Ottoman Architecture of the Balkans Machiel Kiel, 1990 Approaches to Byzantine Architecture and its Decoration Mark J. Johnson, Amy Papalexandrou, 2016-12-05 The fourteen essays in this collection demonstrate a wide variety of approaches to the study of Byzantine architecture and its decoration a reflection of both newer trends and traditional scholarship in the field The variety is also a reflection of Professor Curcic's wide interests which he shares with his students These include the analysis of recent archaeological discoveries recovery of lost monuments through archival research and onsite examination of material remains reconsidering traditional typological approaches often ignored in current scholarship fresh interpretations of architectural features and designs contextualization of monuments within the landscape tracing historiographic trends and mining neglected written sources for motives of patronage The papers also range broadly in terms of chronology and geography from the Early Christian through the post Byzantine period and from Italy to Armenia Three papers examine Early Christian monuments and of these two expand the inquiry into their architectural afterlives Others discuss later monuments in Byzantine territory and monuments in territories related to Byzantium such as Serbia Armenia and Norman Italy No Orthodox church being complete without interior decoration two papers discuss issues connected to frescoes in late medieval Balkan churches Finally one study investigates the continued influence of Byzantine palace architecture long after the fall of Constantinople The Architectural Ornament of Diocletian's Palace at Split Sheila McNally, 1996 A magnificent treasure house for a study in decoration no other extant Roman monument has such rich examples of ornament from a single building campaign McNally grabs the opportunity to consider the functions of rare fragments in situ to find a grand decorative scheme and a relationship with structure This should also provide fixed points of comparison for other buildings at a defined period early fourth century Appendix dealing with the frieze inside the mausoleum and the coffer of the Temple of Jupiter Early Christian and Byzantine Architecture Richard Krautheimer, 1986
