Archive Fever A Freudian Impression Religion And Postmodernism:

Archive Fever Jacques Derrida,1996 As a depository of civic record and social history whose very name derives from the Greek word for town hall the archive would seem to be a public entity yet it is stocked with the personal even intimate artifacts of private lives It is this inherent tension between public and private which inaugurates for Derrida an inquiry into the human impulse to preserve through technology as well as tradition both a historical and a psychic past What emerges is a marvelous expansive work engaging at once Judaic mythos Freudian psychoanalysis and Marxist materialism in a profound reflection on the real the unreal and the virtual

Kabbalah and Postmodernism Sanford L. Drob,2009 Kabbalah and Postmodernism A Dialogue challenges certain long held philosophical and theological beliefs including the assumptions that the insights of mystical experience are unavailable to human reason and inexpressible in linguistic terms that the God of traditional theology either does or does not exist that systematic theology must provide a univocal account of God man and the world that truth is absolute and not continually subject to radical revision and that the truth of propositions in philosophy and theology excludes the truth of their opposites and contradictions Readers of Kabbalah and Postmodernism will be exposed to a comprehensive mode of theological thought that incorporates the very doubts that would otherwise lead one to challenge the possibility of theology and religion and which both preserves the riches of the Jewish tradition and extends beyond Judaism to a non dogmatic universal philosophy and ethic

Oxford and developed a sociology of danger that strongly influenced Mary Douglas T W Adorno Iris Murdoch H G Adler and Julia Kristeva contrasts with Canetti s emphasis on shock Canetti s response to the Holocaust constitutes in Dominick LaCapra s terms an acting out of trauma a comparison between Canetti s Masse und Macht and the anthropological texts he uses brings to the fore his bleak depiction of humanity By contrast Steiner in comparison to Canetti lays emphasis on working through the Holocaust that is to say on overcoming the paralysis of trauma by reflecting critically on values that might transform a damaged society However Canetti s depiction of humanity cannot entirely be seen in LaCapra s notion of acting out for through the shock of acting out Canetti nonetheless wants to bring about a working through Similarly despite the working through shock and trauma are dramatized in Steiner s poetry and his aphoristic writings Moreover Canetti thematizes an ethical impact on his readership in his aphorisms In response to the Holocaust both writers advance a theory of power what Steiner calls danger Canetti attacks as death Steiner s and Canetti s respective responses to the Holocaust consists in a critique of static ways of thought affirming metamorphosis and deconceptualized understanding of the world which connects linguistic fluidity to the everchanging contextualities of social and embodied life From the Margins Brian Keith Axel,2002-06-07 State of the art volume by the major voices in historical anthropology Ancient Worlds in Digital Culture Claire Clivaz,Paul Dilley,David Hamidović,2016-08-15 The volume presents a selection of research projects in Digital Humanities applied to the Biblical Studies in the widest sense and context including Early Jewish and Christian studies hence the title Ancient Worlds Taken as a whole the volume explores the emergent Digital Culture at the beginning of the 21st century It also offers many examples which attest to a change of paradigm in the textual scholarship of Ancient Worlds categories are reshaped textuality is re investigated according to its relationships with orality and visualization methods approaches and practices are no longer a fixed conglomeration but are mobilized according to their contexts and newly available digital tools Autofiction, Emotions, and Humour Alexandra Effe,Arnaud Schmitt,2022-12-26 Autofiction is often associated with humour irony and play Moreover authors of autofictional texts are frequently criticised for a lack of seriousness or for failing to straightforwardly and in their own voice engage with a given topic Yet very few autofictional texts are exclusively or even primarily playful Many employ humour and irony to address very serious subject matter This volume explores how these seemingly opposed characteristics of autofictional texts in fact work together The contributions in this volume show that autofictional texts often make use of humour and play in a productive and meaningful way tackling issues such as human rights violations historical and collective as well as personal trauma and struggle with psychological or physical illness and abuse On the basis of geographically wide ranging case studies including texts from South America South Africa the United States and Europe this book explores how in which contexts and to which effects autofictional texts reveal their authors complex and often painful psychological experiences and engage the emotions of their readers This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Life Writing Iranian Identity and Cosmopolitanism Lucian

Skepticism's Pictures Melissa Lo,2023-05-26 In seventeenth century northern Europe as the Aristotelian foundations of scientia were rocked by observation experiment confessional strife and political pressure natural philosophers came to rely on the printed image to fortify their epistemologies and none more so than Ren Descartes In Skepticism's Pictures historian of science Melissa Lo chronicles the visual idioms that made sustained revised and resisted Descartes's new philosophy Drawing on moon maps political cartoons student notebooks treatises on practical mathematics and other sources Lo argues that Descartes transformed natural philosophy with the introduction of a new graphic language that inspired a wide range of pictorial responses shaped by religious affiliation political commitment and cultural convention She begins by historicizing the graphic vocabularies of Descartes's Essais and Principia philosophiae and goes on to analyze the religious and civic volatility of Descartes's thought which compelled defenders such as Jacques Rohault and Wolferd Senguerd to reconfigure his pictures according to their local visual cultures and stimulated enemies such as Gabriel Daniel to unravel Descartes's visual logic with devastating irony In the epilogue Lo explains why nineteenth century French philosophers divorced Descartes's thought from his pictures creating a modern image of reason and a version of philosophy absent visuality Engaging and accessible Skepticism's Pictures presents an exciting new approach to Descartes and the visual reception of seventeenth century physics It will appeal to historians of early modern European science philosophy art and culture and to art historians interested in histories that give images their argumentative power

Postmodern Theology Carl Raschke,2017-07-12 Postmodern Theology consists in a sharp edged retrospective and reflection on the forty year history of the most important movement in contemporary religious thought that is only now passing from the scene The author Dr Carl Raschke is generally credited with having sparked the movement even if he did not always happen to be its leading spokesperson Not only has a comprehensive survey of postmodern theology in all its different phases and complexity not been published prior to the appearance of this book but it is even more remarkable for someone who both launched it and had a central role in shepherding it along to offer what may be termed a movement memoir Postmodern Theology surveys and summarizes the major figures and trends that have given currency to such familiar expressions as deconstruction deconstructive theology radical theology a theology God is dead and of course postmodernism itself Dr Raschke also contextualizes the emergence of these catchy phrases from a frothy soup of new intellectual theories and philosophical innovations which were international in scope but customized for both academic and popular religious writers mainly in Britain and America from the late 1960s onward Dancing in the World Sinclair Ogaga Emoghene, Kathleen A.

Spanos, 2023-08-16 How can we create more inclusive spaces in the field of dance This book presents a framework for dance practitioners and researchers working in diverse dance cultures to navigate academia and the professional dance field The framework is based on the idea of cultural confluences conjuring up an image of bodies of water meeting and flowing into and past one another migrating through what the authors refer to as the mainstream and non mainstream These streams are fluid categories that are associated with power privilege and the ability or inability to absorb other cultural forms in shared dance spaces In reflective interludes and dialogues Emoghene and Spanos consider the effects of migration on their own individual experiences in dance to understand what it means to carry culture through the body in various spaces Through an analysis of language aesthetic values spaces creative processes and archival research practices the book offers a collaborative model for communicating the value that marginalized dance communities bring to the field This book will be of great interest to students scholars and arts administrators in dance
