New American History

Get started

The sixty years between 1800 and 1860 saw the politics, religion, language, literature, art, population, and economy of the young United States change with remarkable speed, forever shaping American history. To help see the variety and depth of those changes, this StoryMap offers a geographic and chronological map of the era, connecting to helpful websites, a traveling that explores places today, and learning resources for use in classes. It presents portraits and images of people who confronted the challenges and opportunities of these critical decades of American history. The stories of those people and of this time are explored in the book that inspired this project: American Visions: The United States, 1800–1860, by Edward L. Ayers.

Who's Who of Canadian Women, 1999-2000 Gillian Holmes, 1999-06-01 Who's Who of Canadian Women is a guide to the most powerful and innovative women in Canada. Celebrating the talents and achievement of over 3,700 women, Who's Who of Canadian Women includes women from all over Canada in all fields including agriculture, academia, law, business, politics, journalism, religion, sports, and entertainment. Each biography includes such information as personal data, education, career history, current employment, affiliations, interests, and honours. A special comment section reveals personal thoughts, goals, and achievements of the profiled individual. Entries are indexed by employment or affiliation for easy reference. Published every two years, Who's Who of Canadian Women selects its biographees on merit alone. This collection is an essential resource for all those interested in the achievements of Canadian women.

Voices from within the Veil William H. Alexander, Charles H. Ford, Cassandra L. Newby-Alexander, 2009-05-27 And then the Veil It drops as drops the night on southern seas vast sudden unanswering There is Hate behind it and Cruelty and Tears As one peers through its intricate unfathomable pattern of ancient old old design one sees blood and guilt and misunderstanding And yet it hangs there this Veil between Then and Now between Pale and Colored and Black and White between You and Me W E B DuBois Darkwater Voices from within the Veil 1920 As the promoters of Jamestown 2007 began to speak of the accomplishment of greater diversity in the nation and to market the myth of the seamless confluence of Indian, European, and African traditions in the early colony, many reflected not only about how the United States colonial origins were based on the entrepreneurial ambitions of English settlers, the conquest and degradation of native populations, and the subsequent uprooting and enslavement of untold numbers of Africans, but also about how the more recent legacy of decades of discrimination and marginalization continue to shape our world today. Despite the assimilation, acculturation, and dehumanization that have occurred in the Americas, African Americans have continued to refashion their cultures to fit their own social needs and aesthetic preferences From Introduction Voices from within the Veil explores the 400 year prelude to the inclusion of African Americans in the commemoration of this nation s origins With innovative approaches and pioneering research these essays address both the conditions of African Americans marginalization and some of the paths toward their empowerment marronage the Underground Railroad social organization and massive protest movements among others Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,1992
