Determinants of Indigenous Peoples' Health Sarah De Leeuw,2015 The health disparities affecting Indigenous peoples in Canada might well be understood as a national epidemic Although progress has been made in the last decade towards both understanding and ameliorating Indigenous health inequalities very little research or writing has expanded a social determinants of health framework to account for the unique histories and present realities of Indigenous peoples in this country This timely edited collection addresses this significant knowledge gap exploring the ways that multiple health determinants beyond the social from colonialism to geography from economy to biology converge to impact the health status of Indigenous peoples in Canada This unique collection comprised largely of contributions by Indigenous authors offers the voices and expertise of First Nations Inuit and Metis writers from across Canada The multitude of health determinants of Indigenous peoples are considered in a selection of chapters that range from scholarly papers by research experts in the field to reflective essays by Indigenous leaders Appropriate throughout a range of disciplines including Health Studies Indigenous Studies Public and Population Health Community Health Sciences Medicine Nursing and Social Work this engaging text broadens the social determinants of health framework to better understand health inequality Most importantly it does so by placing front and center the voices and experiences of Indigenous peoples An American Family Jeffrey Ruoff,2002 Before 1973 the Loud family of Santa Barbara California lived in the privacy of their own home With the airing of the documentary An American Family that privacy extended to every American home with a television This book is the first to offer a close look at An American Family the documentary that blurred conventions stirred passions revised impressions of family life and definitions of private and public and began the breakdown of distinctions between reality and spectacle that culminated in cultural phenomena from The Oprah Winfrey Show to Survivor A Study Guide for Eugenia Collier's "Sweet Potato Pie" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016 A Study Guide for Eugenia Collier s Sweet Potato Pie excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1988 New Directions in American Reception Study Philip Goldstein,James L. Machor,2008-01-30 Contemporary reception study has developed a diversity of approaches and methods including the institutional textual historical authorial and reader response which to a greater or lesser extent acknowledge the various ways in which readers have found texts literature television shows movies and newspapers meaningful This collection emphasizes that new diversity examining movies newspapers fans television shows and traditional American as well as modern Hispanic Black and Women s literature The essays on literature include James Machor on Melville s short fiction Kenneth Roemer on Edward Bellamy s utopian work Looking Backward Amy Blair on the popularity of Sinclair Lewis s Main Street Marcial Gonzalez on Danny Santiago and his Hispanic novel Famous All Over Town and Leonard Diepeveen on modernist fiction and criticism The theoretical essays on reader oriented criticism include Patsy Schweickart on interpretation and the ethics of care and Jack Bratich on active audiences Media versions of response criticism include Andrea Press and Camille Johnson s ethnographic analysis of fans of the Oprah Winfrey Show Janet Staiger on Robert Aldrich s film version of Mickey Spillane s Kiss Me Deadly and Rhiannon Bury on the fans of the HBO television show Six Feet Under History of the book versions include Barbara Hochman on the popularity of the 1890s editions of Harriet Beecher Stowe s Uncle Tom s Cabin Ellen Garvey on nineteenth century scrapbooks of newspaper and David Nord on early twentieth century newspapers relations to audience charges of bias and unfairness Poststructuralist studies include Philip Goldstein on Richard Wright s Native Son Steve Mailloux on Reading Lolita in Tehran and Tony Bennett on the cultural analyses of Pierre Bourdieu The collection concludes with essays by Janice Radway on the limits of these methods and on the possibility of new forms of sociological and anthropological reception study and by Toby Miller on the reception deception in relation to the worldwide distribution and reception of movies and television shows The American-style University at Large Kathryn L. Kleypas,James I.

McDougall,2012-01-01 The focus of research on the globalization of higher education has historically been on universities within the United States More recently the focus has shifted to the international scene yet there remain few published works to document this phenomenon The American Style University at Large Transplants Outposts and the Globalization of Higher Education edited by Kathryn L Kleypas and James McDougall is an intervention into current discussions concerning the role of the contemporary American style university in a global context The editors approach the subject from their own experiences as professors at an American style university in the Middle East They pull together essays from an impressively diverse list of contributors which examine the various ways that American models of higher learning have become instituted around the world The authors then explore ways that these new configurations help to define the university as a force that organizes develops and controls methods of education knowledge power and culture Small Press Record of Books in Print

Len Fulton,1994 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1980 Hunting Captain Ahab Clare L. Spark,2006 This highly acclaimed and provocative interdisciplinary study of the development of institutional censorship explores the complexities of 20th century American cultural politics through the protagonists of the Melville Revival Spark addresses the distinction between the radical and conservative Enlightenment and makes her way through Melville s often confusing and contradictory texts examining the disputes within Melville scholarship The Grand Strategy of the United States in Latin America Tom J. Farer, In this collection of essays Tom Farer examines critically the stand taken by U S foreign policy makers on such issues as right and left wing dictatorships revolution human rights and national autonomy In this fascinating manner focusing sharp observations at times with polemical intent Farer scrutinizes the key assumptions including the Soviet or revolutionary threat which have guided American foreign policy for Latin America since the end of World War II One central conviction is that changes in regimes rarely have objective significance for U S strategic interests properly conceived Farer describes the grand strategy of the United States in Latin America he sees very much the same strategic assumptions guiding U S policy throughout the Third World as unrealistic and misguided in terms both of U S interests and ideals He argues that America has over the years maneuvered itself into political legal and moral dilemmas by disregarding or misunderstanding the internal dynamics of Latin American countries and their implications for U S interests and by seeing dangerous and irremedial hostility in all revolutionary movements Against this tradition in U S policy Farer advocates tactics and strategies he deems more consonant with the proper goals of U S policy and with Latin American needs and aspirations His essays combine a sophisticated analysis of Latin American society with assessment of U S policy from legal moral and strategic perspectives The Earth , The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006
