Developing Africa? Lehasa Moloi,2024-03-12 Developing Africa New Horizons with Afrocentricity aims to contest the Eurocentric narrative of an African development discourse. This book deploys the theory of Afrocentricity as an intellectual standpoint from which African thinkers should interrogate and reconceptualize the discourse of development in Africa. Particularly, the book argues in favour of the Afrocentric re-interpretation of African history, African culture, and assertion of African agency as the core building wedge in the reconceptualization of the ideal African development trajectory.

Critical Research Methodologies, 2021-02-08

We live in a society that promotes the universal process of producing knowledge and truth making as fundamental social process. Such promotion of universality seems to subjugate others' forms of knowing, rendering them invisible, unintelligible, and ineligible and subsequently outside the community of knowing. This has material and symbolic consequences in terms of how research informs policy and subsequent victimization of those who live and experience subjugation meted by Western truth making universalism. In the words of Foucault, this book is an insurrection of subterranean and clandestine knowledges in ways that provide not just an alternative process of knowledge production but affirms local knowledge as necessary in production of a just society. The book looks at research as a social justice and transformational process that should speak of people's ways of life without necessarily streamlining them into numbers. The book is a critically reflexive project in terms of returning processes of knowledge production to the local space rather than imagining them as entirely centred in the structure. To imagine this book as reflexive exercise is to break boundaries of knowledges in ways that come to imagine how local performs global in very complicated and complex ways. This book is a resurrection of local knowledges steeped in creative and imaginative reflexive methodologies that come to reorient how we come to know what we know, the values and realities that mark what we know, and the how of knowledge production. It centres subjugated voices and knowledges as fundamental in production of knowledge.

Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm, Jerome Schiele, Jerome H. Schiele, 2013-09-13

Discover how human services professionals can help to eliminate cultural oppression. Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm presents a new way of understanding human behavior, attacking social problems, and exploring social issues. This excellent guide shows that understanding the simultaneous forces of oppression and spiritual alienation in American society serves as a foundation for understanding the societal problems here. The first book to offer a comprehensive exposition of how the Afrocentric paradigm can be used by human service professionals and community advocates, Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm discusses why and how human service work is hampered by Eurocentric cultural values and will help you to offer fair and effective services to your clients. Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm provides you with a concrete description of how the Afrocentric model can be applied in human services to help people of all races and ethnicities. You will expand and diversify your knowledge base in human services by understanding the cultural values, traditions, and experiences of people of African ancestry. Some of the issues and concepts in the Afrocentric paradigm that you will explore are defining the Afrocentric worldview complete with a discussion of its philosophical assumptions and its shortcomings understanding traditional helping assumptions and methods of West African societies and how these have influenced the helping strategies of African Americans exploring the strengths and weaknesses of some early African American human service scholars with special concern placed on their rejection of traditional African methods in favor of Eurocentric ideas resolving youth violence and helping people with substance abuse problems examining Afrocentric assumptions about resource distribution morality and societal relationships identifying organizational and conceptual differences in Eurocentric and Afrocentric paradigms creating organizational empowerment and an enhanced work environment via the Afrocentric paradigm Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm will help you understand solve and prevent problems that are confronted by several races especially individuals of African descent This timely and relevant worldview is thoroughly explained to assist you in better serving people of color The Afrocentric paradigm will help human services practitioners administrators policy advocates analysts educators and black studies professors and students achieve educational and treatment objectives by showing you the importance of various cultural values and how to integrate them to make a difference

In the Footsteps of the Pharaohs: Refuting Afrocentric Delusions about Egypt Yaser Reda Abd El-A'al, 2025-03-13 Refuting the lies of Afrocentricism does not imply disregarding or belittling the significance of the African continent and its peoples but rather a call to acknowledge the historical fact that views the ancient Egyptian civilization as part of a global inclusive civilization network Whereas Egypt was not an island isolated from the rest of the world but rather was at the heart of the cultural interaction between Africa Asia Europe and the Ancient Near East and it was influenced by all these cultures and contributed to each one of them This book is not a call for discrimination or inciting racial prejudices but rather is a serious and objective attempt to provide a rigorous scientific perspective about one of the most important chapters in human history which is ancient Egyptian history This book comes to highlight the truth as scored by credible historical sources and modern genetic studies far from distortion or falsification to which the identity of the Egyptian civilization was exposed at the hands of the Afrocentric movement and its advocates This book aims to clarify and contest the Afrocentric delusions about Egypt and that is the ideology believing that the Egyptian civilization is of black African origins which opens a new window before us to look at the Pharaonic civilization away from externalities and misconceptions through historical documentation and genetic evidences The book also offers an accurate and objective perspective that sets the record straight and reveals the delusions cast upon the history of a great country that has been the focus of attention from the world for thousands of years

Malcolm X and the Poetics of Haki Madhubuti Regina Jennings, 2006-10-12 Illustrating the power of oratory in the 1960s and its successful merging with the art of that era this text examines the significance of Malcolm X as a literary muse for Haki Madhubuti one of America's premiere poets and essayists Long after the death of Malcolm X Haki Madhubuti continued to expound on X's major oratorical themes including the effort to destroy the racial appellation Negro and to create new definitions for words that relate to Africa X's persistence in oratory during the 1960s influenced an art movement that changed the psychology and behavior of American Blacks Through a historical and literary analysis of Black poetry this text charts how selected writers exhibited great tensions around issues of race until the arrival of the 1960s generation of artists This book contributes to a broader understanding of Malcolm X and his impact on American writing and culture

Great Books Written by Africans across the Academic Disciplines Emmanuel D. Babatunde,Abdul Karim Bangura,2022-07-04 This volume is the first text to provide a comprehensive account of the great books across the academic disciplines written by Africans born in the continent and those who became naturalized citizens of African countries These great books are those that have had a powerful important or affecting influence on the author of a chapter in this book as an individual and on society The books included here are mostly of the storytelling type and thus not representative of most of the academic disciplines This volume allows each contributor to write a chapter on a discipline showcasing five great books written by African authors Each selection is appraised and suggestions made by other experts in a discipline while every chapter entails an introduction to the topic a conceptual discussion of the discipline a book by book review of the five books and a conclusion and recommendations for research using the selected books

Reading Du Bois Aaron X. Smith,Molefi Kete Asante,2025-05-01 A clear critical accessible and ultimately hopeful discovery voyage through the seas of Du Bois's language and ideas Offering a vision both hopeful and thoughtful Reading Du Bois is an Afrocentric reexamination of the work of one of the most important intellectuals of our time Du Bois wanted to solve the issue of race dividing American society Aaron X Smith and Molefi Kete Asante take one of Du Bois's key concepts the idea that the problem of his century was going to be the color line and demonstrate that such a reader of that concept provides fresh insights into our present interpersonal and political situation The application of Du Bois's concept such as the color line reveals the subject place of African American people is not merely a marginal space but rather a central space to all who seek to bring justice democracy and optimism

Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka,2010-03-08 When Frantz Fanon's critiques of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever widening orbit of Africana critical theory something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon's Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon's thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon's contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory. In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism, sexism, colonialism, capitalism, and humanism, five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize. These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation's wretched of the earth. Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory using their anti-imperialist interests. Throughout Forms of Fanonism, Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon, incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers. This book, in short, solemnly keeps with Fanon's own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory.

An Afrocentric Manifesto Molefi Kete Asante, 2007-12-17

Molefi Kete Asante's Afrocentric philosophy has become one of the most persistent influences in the social sciences and humanities over the past three decades. It strives to create new forms of discourse about Africa and the African Diaspora, impact on education through expanding curricula to be more inclusive, change the language of social institutions to reflect a more holistic universe, and revitalize conversations in Africa, Europe, and America about an African renaissance based on commitment to fundamental ideas of agency, centeredness, and cultural location. In An Afrocentric Manifesto, Molefi Kete Asante examines and explores the cultural perspective closest to the existential reality of African people in order to present an innovative interpretation on the modern issues confronting contemporary society. Thus, this book engages the major critiques of Afrocentricity, defends the necessity for African people to view themselves as agents instead of as objects on the fringes of Europe, and proposes a more democratic framework for human relationships. An Afrocentric Manifesto completes Asante's quartet on Afrocentric theory. It is at the cutting edge of this new paradigm with implications for all disciplines and fields of study. It will be essential reading for urban studies, philosophy, African and African American Studies, social work, sociology, political science, and communication.

Qualitative Methods in Africana Studies James L. Conyers Jr., 2016-07-20

This survey of methodology provides a framework for understanding Africana Studies. Correlating this book to research and writing in Africana Studies helps to extend the perplexity, paradox, and parley of social science and humanistic research. This book attempts to answer what is Africana Studies with reference to an interdisciplinary body of knowledge. Africana Studies is the global Pan-Africanist study of African phenomena interpreted from an Afrocentric perspective. Among those scholars who contribute to this interdisciplinary body of knowledge, perspective signals the commonality in the school of thought. This book offers general definitions and descriptions of the qualitative and quantitative research.
